OLD-TIME CROWD TURNS OUT

TWENTY THOUSAND SUPPORTERS OF RACING THRONG SHEEPSHEAD BAY TRACK

King James Wins the Ocean Handicap, with Jack Atkin Sensational Second-Latter, Left Standing at Post, Is Timed Mile in 1:36 4-5.

New York, September 6.—The biggest crowd of the season, estimated at 20,000, attended the Sheepshead Bay races today, and the card was worthy of the occasion. One feature, the Ocean Handicap, at one mile, was alone worth the price of admission. It was regarded as one of the greatest contests at the distance ever decided on the American turf. There were only five starters, but three of them, King James, Jack Atkin and Dorante, were turf stars of the first magnitude and all carried stake weights. The first-named pair had 133 pounds each, and the Forsythe horse carried 124. The running of the first magnitude and all carried stake weights. Tom Shaw led the Jack Atkin raid on the ring, Jack Atkin's habit of dwelling at the start, contracted this season, proved his undoing, Left standing still when the barrier arose, the glant son of Sain—El Salado was sent after his opponents, racing away in the following processional order: King's Daughter, King James, Practical and Dorante. So swiftly did Jack Atkin improve his position that he headed the pacemaker for second honors in the last strike, just two lengths behinding James. The winner's time was 1:37½. Unofficially the runner-up was thred the mile in 1:30½. Matty every expert clocker on the track timed Jack Atkin James, and his horse had showed the best mile performance, considering the weights carried, ever seen on the American turf. King's Daughter ran brillantly for seven furlongs, the favorite seemingiv not being able to pass her un'il well down the stretch. ## BOOKMAKING STOPPED AT HAWTHORNE.

The hungriness of Chicago for thoroughbred racing, regardless of its caliber, was well illustrated yesterday, when more than 10,000 persons were attracted to the Hawthorne track by the Labor Day racing program, arranged by former Alderman Tom Carey, the new master of Hawthorne, unfer union Carey, the new master of Hawthorne, unfer union were provided, but the big crowd plainly showed by its demeanor that racing was the one thing in which it was interested. It was out for racing above aught else, and hopes ran high when bookmaking conducted by local layers, was openly permitted on the first two races. Then deputy sheriffs, presumably acting under orders from State's Attorney Wayman's office, asserted themselves and ordered the bookmakers to cease business. The order was combled with and whatever betting was thereafter induized in was of the individual sort. The paddock was the scene of the booking that freely went on during the first two races. Before the bookmaking was interfered with by the officials. Tom Carey of various kinds that happeen opined in saveral sections of the grounds. It is said that arrests will be made today of those who played a part in the bookmaking.

The Garry Hermann—Senorita coll is particularly pre-pagesessing. He is big and powerfully muscled.

PURCHASER OF PRINCE IMPERIAL.

New York, September 6.—Robert F. Little, who acquired John Marklein's crack colt, Prince Imperial, for the reputed price of $12,000 at Fort Eris Saturday, is a New Yorker of ample means with a liking for racing. He owns The Squire, now racins on the castern tracks, and was a prominent pur chaser at the July sales of yearlings at Sheepshea Bay. It is evident that he plans to engage in the sport on an extensive scale next season.

RUNNING OF THE SAPPHIRE STAKES

When the Sapphire Stakes was first run it was won by no less a celebrity than the famous California sprinter, Geraldine, one of the fleetest mares that ever raced in this country. This having occurred as far back as 1887, it results that the Sapphire is to have its twenty-third running this afternoon. It never was an event of the highest importance, but of its winners Geraldine, Gascon, King Cadmus, Dolabra, The Friar, Cenroy, Agile, Meelick and Perseus were all good race horses. Gascon raced over Chicago tracks safficiently to be known by all local patrons of the turf and King Cadmus was the horse with which Pittsburg Phil was reported to have made the greatest winning of his remarkable career. The record of the Sapphire is as follows:

LATONIA TO RACE IN ANY EVENT.

Louisville, Ky., September 6.—While here recently, Arthur Rouse, secretary of the Kentacky Racing Commission, who is also a Latonia racing official, stated that regardless of the Court of Appeals decision in the case of the Latonia Jockey Club against the State Racing Commission, Latonia would hold a twenty-four days' race meeting tifis fall, beginning october 11. According to Rouse, if the Court of Appeals hands down a decision favorable to the commission, the Latonia meeting will go on with mutual and auction pools as the accommodations for bettors, but if the track wins in its contest or up to the date of the meeting the court has not decided the case, then bookmakers will again hold sway in the betting rius. #### THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

The riding of the past week showed some decided variations from that of its immediate predecessor. That week no jockey had more than three winning mounts, but last week J. Reid came to the front with ten, hard pressed by Guy Burns with nine, both very good records for a week of riding. For third place, E. Dugan, Butwell, C. Ross and Vandusen scored a tie, each having guided six winners home. The records of the thirty leading riders are now as follows:

AFTERMATH OF THE FLATBUSH.

New York, September 6.—James R. Keene climbed to the roof of the grandstand at Sheepshead Bay Saturday to see the running of the Flatbush. Mr. Keene had not been at the Bay since Futurity day. Mr. Keene hoped when he went to the track to hear James Rowe say that it would be expedient to add Sweep to the overnight nominations for the Flatbush. The vice-chairman of the Jockey Club has yastly more confidence in the Ben Brush colt than he has in the light-waisted and leggy Grasmere. But Sweep had not been doing well and Rowe would not take chances with him. Mr. Keene was not altogether surprised at the defeat of Grasmere by Waldo and he expressed high admiration of the speed and stamina of the victor.

C. L. Harrison was much gratified by the success of Waldo, because he was half afraid the Planudes colt had lost his form. But it was last as Raleigh Colston told him. But it was the States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga because we was made gratified by the success of Waldo, because he was half afraid the Planudes colt had lost his form. But it was defeated earlier in the week by Risto was been was to much horse for the puny strength of Guy Garner, an eighty-five-pound land by Grasmere and Fauntleroy in the luced States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga because e was roughly handled.

The Saratoga Special and the Flatbush were the two races M present and up his mind at the beginning of the season he wanted most to win. Concerning his decision to retire Waldo. C. L. Harrison said: "He has been a good colt to me and 1 proopse to be good three-year-old, I will rive him a rest. I regret that he did not meet Sweep in the Flatbush."

James R. Keene likewise expressed regret that Sweep did not carry his colors in the Flatbush."

Flatbush."

James R. Keene likewise expressed regret that Sweep did not carry his colors in the Flatbush. "Sweep," said he, "did not decline the issue. He had-a slight touch of distemper, and was not in condition to race. I wished him to have another race with Waldo, for I believe that, good as he was last Monday, he is Waldo's master."

No official fractional time of the race was taken on account of the absence of the Jockey Club's of licial timer, W. H. Barretto, but competent clockers caught the first half-mile in 47 and five-eighths in 598.

NO STAKES FOR LOUISVILLE MEETING.

Louisville, Ky... September 6.—Matt J. Winn, manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and Secretary Lyman II. Davis have returned from Juarez and will at once begin the formation of the forgram for the fall race meeting which opens at Churchill Downs September 10 purse races will be a ranged and the overnight handicaps will be especially attractive in added money. All the races will be arranged and the overnight handicaps will be especially attractive in added money. All the races will be fashioned so as to bring together the best horses now in training in the west, the bulk of which are at present at Churchill Downs will be retained in service at Colonel Winn's Mexican racing plant the coming winter. This facts leaked out by the tender to George H. Lindenberger of the position of official timer, a place he has held at Louisville, Latonia, Lexington and other western and southern tracks for several years. Lindenberer and southern tracks for several years. Indenberer has account at the racing ends in which the fall, which will be on November 6, unless Lexington cuts in for six or several years after that date.

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN SIRES.

The racing of last month brought about some decided changes in the positions of the twenty leading sires of the year. Sweep's triumph in the Futurity, combined with some useful racing by Gretna Green. Besom and Candleberry, have served to move Ben Brush up from eleventh place to the leadership. Woolsthorpe's numerous and industrious band of sons and daughters have advanced him to second place, with Plaudit third, and last month's leader, Yankee, is pushed down into fourth place. It is noteworthy, however, that so closely bunched are the four that Ben Brush has only $1,873 more to his credit than Yankee. Star Shoot has also advanced materially and is now above Voter and Sain, but may have difficulty in holding his position, because of the enforced retirement of his crack daughter, Ocean Bound. The relative standing of the twenty leaders up to and including the racing of August 31 is as follows:

Went to post at 4:51. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Reginald showed much the most speed for the entire trip, but tried to bott frequently on the turns. Braggadocio ran well and fenced in good style, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Impertinence was in forward contention for the first round, but tired when called on. Harrington was going well when he made a bad landing in an attempt at the twelfth fence and might have beaten the winner but for the mishap. Went to post at 4:09. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second and third driving. King James was sent along in close and strenuous pusit of the pacemaker, ranged alongside when beginning the last half and drew out decisively midway of the stretch, but probably was lucky. Jack Atkin, left flatfooted, was injudiclously sent after the others and closed up steadily an immense gap and got up in the last stride for second place. King's Daughter set a fast pace from the start, held on gamely with a small advantage for seven furlongs and tired, but is extra good. Dorante, outbroke and badly outpaced for six furlongs, closed up fast with a belated stretch rush. Practical showed superior speed for six furlongs and tired, but finished well up.
